Answers to Christmas Quiz

a)	Where the poet takes a dip	BARDSEA
b)	Does this vehicle run on steam?	CARKETTLE
c)	You need to wash this heavyweight	STAINTON
d)	From miners to monks here	CONISHEAD PRIORY
e)	Sounds like a trick to me!	ROOSE
f)	Doesn't live up to its offensive name!	STANK
g)	This won't keep the candle burning!	LOWICK
h)	It isn't smaller!	BIGGAR
i)	Traverse this open space	CROSS-A-MOOR
j)	Ships sailed to the end of the leg	CANAL FOOT
k)	Does it cost this much to cross the river?	PENNY BRIDGE
l)	This heavenly place isn't lost	PARADISE
m)	A fresh place to settle	NEWLAND
n)	Close to the stream	BECKSIDE
o)	Sick burn (anagram – 1 word)	SUNBRICK
p)	It begins with someone cuddly	PLUMPTON
q)	A berry's outer garment	HAWCOAT
r)	A colour which is most peculiar	GREENODD
s)	Juggle a stone	GLEASTON
t)	Did the first 'hoodies' come from this place?	FURNESS ABBEY
u)	Leave the cattle here	OXEN PARK
v)	The church is near	KIRKBY
w)	Weigh in here	SCALES
x)	Monarchs come and go from this place across the water	PIEL ISLAND

Winner – Mrs Deborah Nicholson – Barrow. Proceeds from the quiz - £ 86 – to St Peter's Church Funds with thanks to all participants.

St Peter' Church

Thank you to everyone who decorated the church windows so beautifully for the Christmas season. It really added a festive air to the church. Thanks too, to all who attended the Carol and Christingle Service in aid of The Childrens' Society – it was lovely to see the church so full and to watch the children perform their tableau and play their recorders. Many thanks to Sue and Vicky for their input towards this.

£200 was raised for the work of The Childrens' Society

Thanks to all who attended and supported St Peter's Church at the recent afternoon tea at the home of Dick and Josie Quirk. £76.50 was raised for church funds. The next afternoon tea in aid of St Peter's will be held at the home of Sue and David Marshall – 20 London Road, Lindal. All Welcome