

The following poem was written by Michael Picton of London Rd Lindal who attends Croftlands Junior School, Ulverston.

He is 11 years old and won a certificate of Merit with a poem of distinction that has been selected for a 'Young Writers Playgrounds Anthology'

Michael's Magic Box

Based on a poem by Kit Wright

I will put in the box

A scoop of snowflakes from the tip of Mount Everest
The slimy scale of the Loch Ness Monster
Three sapphire - blue wishes spoken in Hawaiian.

I will put in the box

The perfect aim of Michael Jordan
A steaming hot mug of cocoa
A mouth-watering spare rib, oozing with BBQ sauce.

I will put in the box

The 53rd week of the year and a blue banana
A girl with a moustache
And a boy with a skirt.

I will put in the box

The fluffiest lamb of Spring
The first man on Earth
And the final hour of life.

Michael Picton

If anyone has something of interest to report for inclusion in Aspects, please let Jennifer know - 17 London Road, Lindal ph 464228

Lindal and Marton Primary School
Coffee Morning
Saturday 15th October Buccleuch Hall Display of paintings by the schoolchildren All Welcome